

Code of conduct for junior members

LEEDS CANOE CLUB

Leeds Canoe Club is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the well-being of all its members. The club believes that it is important that members, coaches, administrators and parents associated with the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore, members are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with the Welfare Officer, Chairperson or any other member of the Committee.

As a member of Leeds Canoe Club, you are expected to abide by the following junior code of practice:

All members must adhere to club polices and respect officials and their decisions.

All members must respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of age, gender, ability, race, cultural background, religious beliefs or sexual identity.

Take care of all property belonging to the club or club members.

Members must wear appropriate kit as set out in the kit list available on the Club's website, and have available a change of clothing for the end of the session.

Members must pay any fees for membership or events promptly.

Junior members are not allowed to smoke on club premises or whilst representing the club at competitions.

Junior members are not allowed to consume alcohol or drugs of any kind on the club premises or whilst representing the club.

Bullying of any sort will not be tolerated.

Junior members, who are not accompanied by their parent / guardian, should bring a new signed parental consent for each club trip they attend.

